

Moving to Malaga

Travel Checklist

✓	3 Months Before Moving
	Book your airline tickets
	Start looking at the housing market and research areas
	If you have kids, let their school know you're moving and request any paperwork and transfer certificates you may need
	For pets, check quarantine and vaccination requirements
	Research professional relocation consultants to help you move
	Check visa requirements for Spain, and check your passport is valid for at least the next year.
	Check if you need an international drivers license (and get your national one renewed if it's due to expire)
	If you're selling, put your house on the market; if you're renting, let your landlord know you're moving
	Start deciding what you really want to take and what you can put into storage or sell
	Calculate a realistic budget for your new life in Spain including mortgage payments, education, health insurance, groceries, travel
	2 Months Before Moving
	Get copies of your family's medical records from your doctor and research health care options for your new country
	Research schools for your children and start contacting them
	Let your bank know you're going overseas, and start looking at overseas banking options
	Set up any payments you'll need to make while overseas
	If you're renting your house while you're away, get repairs underway and put it on the market
	Start packing items you won't need (ornaments, books, out of season clothes)

Moving to Malaga

Travel Checklist

✓	1 Month Before Moving
	Start packing your house up, making sure to leave out essentials and keep a list of what goes where
	Make sure you have travel insurance, both for your flight and your shipped items
	Enrol your kids in a school
	Secure some accommodation for when you arrive, whether it's temporary or permanent
	Cancel any memberships, subscriptions, or utilities, and sort out final bills
	Set up your overseas bank
	Have you received your final papers to exchange on property
	2 Weeks Before Moving
	Arrange a local Spanish SIM card
	Double check the WI-FI is connected at your new accommodation
	Make sure you have the necessary physical debit and credit cards for your new accounts
	Pack up your house and put everything into storage apart from the essentials
	Ensure you have your medication for the first few weeks

